

Girard Flower Table

Natural beauty endures with the Girard Flower Table, originally designed by Alexander Girard in the mid-1950s for the Miller House in Columbus, Indiana. Thanks to clever use of materials, the table – a modern take on a blooming flower – can sit inside or outside, in a variety of settings.

hermanmiller.com/girard-flower-table

 HermanMiller

Key features

1. Delightful details: Scalloped edges and a repeating petal-shaped pattern for a base
2. Durable material: Powder-coated steel makes it durable enough for outdoor use

Benefits

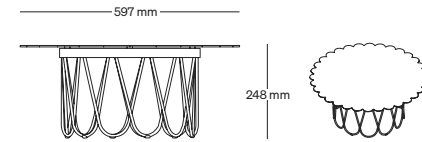

- With scalloped edges and a repeating petal-shaped pattern for a base, the Girard Flower Table is a delightful addition to spaces both indoors and out
- The table comes in two sizes and two colours to position together or apart
- Made of powder-coated steel, making it durable enough for outdoor use

Warranty

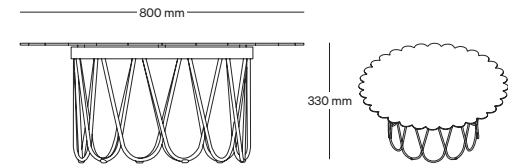

5-year

Statement of line overview

Girard Flower Table – Small

Girard Flower Table – Large

For the full statement of line, please refer to the price book.

Images

Click here to view image gallery.

Materials

Click here to view the complete textile and materials offering for Girard Flower Table.

Sustainability

Click here to see how Girard Flower Table meets your environmental goals.

3D Models

Click here to explore the 3D model library.